

ABITA MYSTERY HOUSE

AS SEEN ON AMERICAN PICKERS

TV

The Abita Mystery House at the UCM Museum is a fun roadside attraction in historic Abita Springs. For over 15 years families and friends have walked through the maze of buildings that include a vintage gas station, a hot sauce house, a big exhibition hall, and the beautiful "House of Shards." Featured on many TV shows and national networks.

ABITA MYSTERY HOUSE

Using 1000's of found objects, and home made inventions, artist John Preble created an incredible "mini town" that pokes fun at Southern life: Mardi Gras parades, UFO landings, voodoo fortune tellers, oil refinery plantations, alligator wrestlers, and Cajun chefs. Walk through a maze of buildings and enjoy pushing the buttons that activate the funny animated displays.

"Let the good times roll" - Preble

See the art studio where exhibits are created!

See the flying saucer that crashed our trailer!

This 100 yr. old Creole cottage is now a studio where our artists create, invent and build the wild and crazy pieces you will see in the exhibit hall!

OPEN

10am - 5pm everyday but major holidays

$3 admission
Children 3 and under are free

ABITA MYSTERY HOUSE

22275
Hwy 36,
Abita
Springs,
Louisiana
70420

Walk to the Abita
Brew Pub

Only 5 Miles from I - 12

www.AbitaMysteryHouse.com ph:985-892-2624